Welcome to the 24th Annual

CAMANO ISLAND STUDIO TOUR

Launched by a small group of local artists in 1999, the tour now showcases dozens of artists and galleries on Camano Island and in Stanwood. The tour is produced by the non-profit Camano Arts Association (CAA).

As it has grown, the diversity of art on the Studio Tour has expanded. You'll find abundant work of award winning artists to include: paintings in a variety of mediums; sculptures; textiles; ceramics; jewelry; both leather and woodworking; hand-blown and fused glass. Serious art collectors, those new to the arts, and everyone in between will be delighted with all that is available for appreciation and purchase ~ but foremost is continuing this rich tradition of interconnection between artists and their audience.

The Camano Arts Association (CAA) supports its artists and arts-advocate members with monthly meetings, programs and activities. CAA also has strong relationships with other community resources like the Camano Center and the Stanwood Camano Arts Advocacy Commission (SCAAC).

Please visit our Primary Information Centers for tour information and brochures:

In Stanwood: SCAAC's Mobile Art Center (MAC). You'll find the MAC trailer in the parking lot of the future SCAAC art center (former furniture store) in historic west Stanwood. Located at the intersection of Hwy. 532 and 270th.

On Camano Island: CAA's NEW year-round gallery in the 'Gateway to Camano' building at Freedom Park (aka Terry's Corner). Located at the triangular corner where Hwy. 532 splits into East and North Camano Drives.

Note from 2023's Studio Tour Director, Tracy Stevens:

I would like to thank all of the amazing volunteers who have given their time and talents to make this tour happen (you know who you are!) Extra special thanks go to my primary team for generously volunteering their talents & countless hours:

- Melissa Jander, Volunteer brochures lead
- Susan Cohen Thompson, Volunteer advertisements lead
- Amy Bush, CAA President (Volunteer & "fearless leader")

SUSAN COHEN THOMPSON • STUDIO 9

Gathering Together, Ceramic Tile, 8"x 8"

Nature has always been my focus. I see the universe as an interconnected whole with earth and cosmos flowing in self-awareness that permeates everything. What I love most about the Studio Tour is connecting with visitors, showing my artwork, and getting to know my collectors.

Contact info: thompsonartstudio.com • susan@sct-art.com

425-750-4994

MELISSA JANDER • STUDIO 11

Sunny Days, Oil Painting, 24" x 20"

My goal in painting is to engage the viewer's emotions through color, shape, and expressive brushwork. The beautiful views and quality of light streaming through the studio bring a freedom and joy to the experience of painting in this wonderful corner of the world.

Contact info: melissajander.com

NICKI WIGHT • STUDIO 14

Seashells, Watercolor 17"x 12.5"

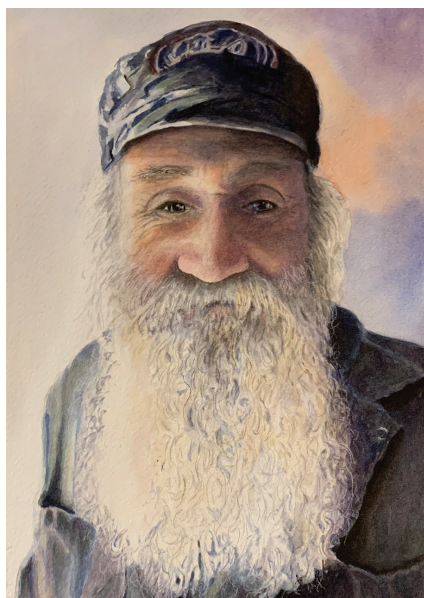

Moving to Camano Island 7 years ago was the best thing I ever did! Camano is full of great artists, it is inspiring. I love to paint all subjects, it keeps me excited. I also teach two watercolor classes in my home studio. It is so rewarding to watch my students develop their talents and enjoy the process.

I look forward to seeing you at the Tour!

SUSAN FOSTER-BRERETON • STUDIO 15

Dennis, Watercolor, 11" x 15"

After "sketching" for years I am now pursuing my dream of capturing the essence of my world on paper. Self-taught, I enjoy painting with watercolors. I am Susan Foster-Brereton on Camano Island.

"The Stanwood Camano Arts Advocacy Commission (SCAAC) was born from a CAA initiative in 2017 to increase collaboration in the local arts community. SCAAC has grown into an active non-profit organization working to increase access to the arts through education, public art, advocacy, and artist support. SCAAC's Mobile Art Center (MAC) is serving as Stanwood's Tour Information Center. You'll find the MAC in the parking lot of the future brick-and-mortar art center being built in the historic west end of Stanwood, right on State Route 532. Learn more at www.scaacwa.org. SCAAC is thrilled to collaborate with CAA in their marquee event, the Northwest's best studio tour."
